Anchoring

A beating seems great value at $2,000
when a castration will set you back
$30,000 in Bitcoin.

SCROLL

✗ Feeble adjectives

Feeble adjectives render even a life-and-death service boring — “professional”, “experienced”, “convenient”...

✗ Assumption of knowledge

Unanswered questions lead to uncertainty which lowers conversions.

Why is a blinding 10% pricier than a crippling?

SCROLL

✗ Telling, not showing

Showing is proof. Telling is cheap:

18th Street Gang Hitmen for hire

HomeHow it worksPricingOrderSecurityFAQContact

If you are looking to have someone murdered, beaten up or intimidated, either to revenge or to collect some debt you came to the right place.

We employ a large network of heavies who do all kinds of illegal work. Originally they worked only for gangs and drug cartels, now their services are open to the public, by an anonymous and secure way, thanks to the dark web.

The 18th Street Gang is the well known legitimate Deep Web marketplace of assault and murder. We offer you experienced hitmen, contract killers and assassins who provide services such as: hit, set hire or kill marks.

Anonymous customers privately post jobs and we assign a strongman in the country of the mark. No expensive flights, nor expensive fake documents keep the price to the lowest possible.

Customers are fully anonymous: no name, no email address, no phone number, no bank details. Customers can hide their IP using tools such as the Tor Browser, Proxies and VPNs.

The payment is done after the hit is successful through escrow. The customer deposit funds into a trusted escrow wallet, either on our site or on an external escrow. Once we complete the job the customer release the funds. Bitcoin is an easy way to pay online, and it is highly anonymous because the customer doesn't expose his credit card or bank account to us. Bitcoin is one of the few payment methods that keep the customer, market and hitman anonymous.

The transaction is considerably safer than a street-based criminal service as we don't ask for any cash advance.

Most strongmen on dark alleys require a 50% cash advance payment before the murder to protect them against losses from non-payment. You can't do much about it if the hitman takes the money and vanishes. Online you exchange cash into bitcoin and holds it in a secure wallet until we do the job. The hitman can't take the money to run away.
